STANDARD: Written policy, procedure and practice provide that Community Supervision Agency staff facilitates reintegration planning with the juvenile's parents or guardians while a juvenile is in out-of-home placement. In preparation for his/her return home, provisions shall be made for home visits before the juvenile's final release.

DISCUSSION: Preparation for the return of juvenile's to their homes from out-of-home placement may include counseling of parents or guardians to help them address the conditions that necessitated the out-of-home placement and/or participation in the CBST process. Home visits provide the juveniles, parents/guardians, and program staff an opportunity to evaluate progress and provide a basis for the final placement decision.

NOTE: The standards and procedures set forth herein are intended to establish operational guidelines for community supervision agencies and their employees/contractors and juveniles under supervision. They are not intended to establish state created liberty interests for community supervision agencies or their employees/contractors, or supervised juveniles, or an independent duty owed by the Juvenile Justice Authority to community supervision agencies, or their employees/contractors, supervised juveniles or third parties. This standard and procedure is not intended to establish or create new constitutional rights or to enlarge or expand upon existing constitutional rights or duties.
